THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,
And the various affections consequent upon a disordered
STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor into the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful roma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative, but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numbrous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Phila.

Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly,

S. T. STOCKMAN.

Wayland, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

THE LOST HOPE.

BY MISS LOUISE R. VICKROY.

It is lost, the sweet hope that was mine, till it taught me
To believe that it formed of my being a part;
Till my cheek could but glow, and my eye but take lustre
From the flame it had lit on the hearth of my heart.

'Twas my sun through the day, and the star of my night-time;
But alas! when I knew not it suddenly fled,
And its light is no longer a crown for the living,
And, oh! bitter sorrow! 'tis not with the dead.

Oh! no: had it died with the voice of a loved one,
Or chilled with some brow in the grave's gloomy prison,
Some angel of light by the sepulchre door-way
Might kindly point upward and say, "It is risen!"

But now, in the brightness and glory of noon-day
I but feel that some shadow my spirit has crossed,
And at midnight, from dreams of the Hope that once cheered me,
I awake with the cry on my lips; 'It is lost!'

Though some times, even yet, to my desolate bosom
It's memory a phantom-like wandering ray,
Comes, sweet as a flower-scent borne by the breezes,
As soft as an echo just dying away;

Yet 'tis LOST, and more sad than the star-sisters' grieving
When a Pleiad was missed from the heavenly host,
In each sister hope's sight, by dispair overshadowed,
Since I say of the bright one, "'TIS LOST! IT IS LOST!"

Select Miscellany.

A Balloon Ride with a Madman.

A French paper gives the following thrilling narrative of the last balloon ascension made by Monsieur Godard from Paris:—

Monsieur Godard took with him on that day as his companion, a wealthy, private gentleman, who paid 1,000 francs for the privilege of sharing in the perils of the expedition. The weather could not have been more propitious, and the balloon shot up rapidly to a considerable altitude.

"What effect does that produce upon you?" asked M. Godard of his companion.

"Nothing!" said the latter, laconically.

"My compliments to you," said M. Godard. "You are the first whom I have ever seen arrive at such an altitude without betraying some emotion."

"Keep on mounting," said the traveler, with a gravity supreme.

M. Godard threw over some ballast, and the balloon ascended some 500 feet higher.

"And now," added M. Godard, "does your heart beat?"

"Nothing yet!" replied his companion, with an air which approached closely to impatience.

"The devil!" exclaimed M. Godard; "you have really, my dear sir, the most perfect qualifications to be an æronaut."

The balloon still ascended; when 1,000 feet higher M. Godard interrogated a third time his companion.

"And now?"

"Nothing, nothing; not the shadow of a fear whatever?" answered the traveler, with a tone positively discontented, and like a man who had experienced a profound deception.

"Goodness me! so much the worse, then," said the æronaut, smiling; "but I must renounce all hopes of making you afraid. The balloon is high enough. We are going to descend."

"To descend?"

"Certainly; there would be danger in mounting higher."

"That does not make the slightest difference to me; I do not choose to descend."

"You what?" asked M. Godard.

"I say I wish to ascend higher; keep on mounting. I have given one thousand francs to experience some emotion; I must do so, and I will not descend before I have felt some emotion."

M. Godard commenced to laugh; he believed at once that it was all a joke.

"Will you ascend, once more?" demanded the traveler, seizing him by the throat and shaking him with violence—"When shall I feel some emotion!"

M. Godard relates that at this moment he felt himself lost. A sudden and dreadful revelation broke upon him in regarding the strangely dilated eyes of his companion; he had to do with a madman!

If even the unfortunate æronaut had had any defensive weapon he would, after all, have been capable of defending himself; but it is not usual for people to furnish themselves with pistols for a voyage in a balloon, and certainly one would not dream of meeting with a warlike encounter in the stars. The earth was five thousand feet beneath—most horrible depth; and the least movement of the now furious madman might cause the car to capsize.

"Ah! ah! you are mocking me, my fine fellow," continued the madman, without loosening his grip. "Ah! you think to rob me of one thousand francs, as well as emotion. Very well, be quiet. It's my turn to laugh. It's you now who are going to cut a caper."

The madman was possessed of prodigious muscular force.

M. Godard did not even attempt to defend himself.

"What do you wish from me?" asked he, with a calm tone and submissive air.

"Simply to amuse myself in seeing you turn a sommersault," answered the madman, with a ferocious smile. "But first (the madman appeared to bethink himself) I have an idea. I wish to see if I can't find some emotion up there. I must put myself astride on the semicircle."

The madman indicated with his finger the upper part of the balloon. Just in speaking he commenced to climb along the cords which held the car attached to the balloon.

M. Godard, who had not before trembled for himself, was forced to do so now for the madman.

"But, miserable man, you are going to kill yourself. You will be seized with vertigo."

"No remarks," hissed the the madman, seizing him again by the collar, "or I will at once pitch you into the abyss."

"At least," observed M. Godard, "allow me to put this cord round your body, so that you may remain attached to the balloon."

"Be it so," said the madman, who appeared to comprehend the utility of the precaution.

This done, furnished with his cord of safety, the madman commenced to climb among the ropes with the agility of a squirrel. He reached the balloon, and placed himself astride the semicircle, as he had said. Once there, he rent the air with a shout of triumph and drew his knife from his pocket.

"What are you going to do?" asked M. Godard, who feared that he might have the idea of ripping open the balloon.

"To make myself comfortable forthwith."

Uttering these words, the madman cut slowly the cord of safety which M. Godard had attached to his body. With a single puff of wind to shake the balloon, the miserable creature must roll over the abyss!

"And now," yelled forth the madman, brandishing his knife, "we are going to laugh. Ah, robber, you thought to make me descend! Very well. It is you who are going to tumble down, in a moment, and quicker than that!"

M. Godard had not time to make a movement or put in a single word. Before he was able to divine the infernal intention of the madman, the latter, still astride of the semicircle, had cut—oh, horror!—four of the cordages which suspended the car to the balloon. The car inclines horribly—it only holds by two.

"A word, a single word," cried M. Godard.

"No, no pardon," vociferated the madman.

"I do not ask for pardon, on the contrary."

"What is it you wish, then?" said the madman, stonished.

"At this moment now," continued the æronaut, hurriedly, "we are at a height of 5,000 feet."

"Stop," said the madman, "that will be charming, to tumble down from such a height."

"It is still too low," added M. Godard.

"How so?" asked the madman, stupefied.

"Yes," said M. Godard, "my experience as an æronaut has taught me that death is not certain to ensue from a fall from this elevation. Tumble, or no tumble, I must prefer to fall from such a hight as to be killed outright, rather than to risk being only lamed—have the charity to precipitate me from a height of 9,000 feet only."

"Ah! that'll do!" said the madman, whom the mention of a more horrible fall charmed amazingly.

M. Godard follows heroically his purpose, and throws over an enormous quantity of ballast. The balloon make a powerful bound, and mounts 500 feet in a few seconds. Only—and whilst the madman surveys this operation with a menacing air—the æronaut thinks to accomplish another, in a sense quite contrary.

The quick eye of M. Godard had remarked that among the cords spared by the madman figured the one leading to the valve. His plan is taken. He draws the cord, it opens the valve fixed in the upper part of the balloon for the purpose of allowing any excess of the hydrogen gas to escape, and the result which he hoped for was not long in making itself apparent.

Little by little the madman becomes drowsy, asphyxiated, and insensible by the vapors of the gas which surround him.—The madman being sufficiently asphxiated for his purpose, M. Godard allows the balloon to descend slowly to the earth. The drama is finished.

Arrived on terra firma, M. Godard, not bearing any hatred to the author of his perilous voyage, hastened to restore him to animation, and had him conveyed, hands and feet bound, to the neighboring station.

RELIGION IN DAILY LIFE. Religion is not a perpetual moping over good books. Religion is not even prayer, praise, holy ordinances. These are necessary to religion—no man can be religious without them. But religion is mainly and chiefly the glorifying God among the duties and trials of the world; the guiding of our course amid adverse winds and currents of temptation, by the star-light of duty and the compass of divine truth; the bearing us manfully, wisely, courageously, for the honor of Christ, our great Leader, in the conflict of life.—Dairy.

Causes of Divorce.

More than thirty causes of divorce are recognized by the statutes of the different States. In South Carolina not one has ever been obtained. In Virginia there are three causes, namely; natural and incurable impotency at the time of the marriage, idiocy and bigamy. In Alabama, adultery, or two years abandonment. In Rhode Island impotency, adultery, extreme cruelty, willful desertion for the space of five years, continued drunkenness, neglect of the husband to provide necessaries for the subsistence of the wife, gross misbehavior and wickedness repugnant to the marriage contract. In New Jersey divorce is granted for prior existing marriage, adultery, and willful absence for five years. In Vermont for non-age, mental incapability, impotency, force or fraud, adultery, confinement in the State Prison for three years or more, intolerable severity, willful desertion for three years, absence for seven years unheard of, and where the husband, being of ability, grossly and wantonly neglects to provide for his wife. In Maine, for adultery, impotency, desertion for five years, joining the Shakers for five years, confinement in the State Prison of any one of the United States for five years, fraud in obtaining the consent of the other party, habitual drunkenness for three years; a marriage with an Indian or mullatto is void; and imprisonment for felony in the State, works a divorce without any judicial proceeding. In Kentucky for habitual drunkenness, condemnation for felony, cruelty of the husband, and for several other causes which we forbear to mention. In Illinois, for impotency, adultery, willful desertion for two years, extreme cruelty, habitual drunkenness for two years. In Missouri, for adultery, willful desertion for two years, conviction for an infamous crime, habitual drunkenness for two years, cruel treatment endangering life, intolerable indignities, vagrancy of the husband. In Iowa the same causes exist as in Missouri, to which is super added, "when the parties cannot live in peace and happiness, and their welfare requires a separation."

The law of Arkansas is the same as in Missouri, except that one year's absence is sufficient to free the abandoned party from the bonds of marriage. In Tennessee and Mississippi the law is nearly similar; while in Florida, to like enactments are added habitual indulgence of violent and ungovernable temper for one year, or drunkenness or desertion for one year.

In North Carolina, impotency, adultery, abandonment, turning the wife out of doors, cruelty or indignity on the part of the husband, or any other just cause. In Texas impotency, excess, or cruel treatment, or outrages, or desertion for three years; the husband may have a divorce for the adultry of his wife, and the wife when the husband abandons her and lives in adultery. In Maryland the law is the same as in New York, except that abandonment and three years absence from the State is a cause for divorce. In Georgia the old English ecclesiastical law governs. In Newhampshire and Ohio similar laws to those of Vermont prevail. Extreme cruelty and absence for three years are causes of divorce in Delaware, to which Pennsylvania has added intolerable indignities Congress has never conferred the power to grant divorce upon the courts in the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Partington Patriotic.

"Hurra!" said Ike, as he read the fact in the papers; "here's O'Regan admitted to the Union." "A furriner, I should judge," remarked Mrs. Partington, looking very wisely at the steam that rose from the tea-cups and formed in one cloud near the ceiling," "but I'm glad they've let him come to enjoy our political rights and lefts and other prerogatives. There's room enough, and the rear of our institutions should be extended. I don't believe a man should be cut off because he wasn't born in this country for twenty-one years, which of course wasn't any fault of his, for everybody would be born here if they could have their own auction consulted." "It means," said Ike, "a new State." "Well, child," replied she, "the odds is only the difference—State or men," tis all the same. Let 'em come into our grand consternation, where the eagle shall spread its broad opinions over 'em, and make 'em happy in an unlimited bondage of brotherhood, like the Siamese twins."

A LIVING FAITH.—In a public school in New York, a short time since, on an alarm of fire, a terrible panic ensued, and many of the scholars were injured by rushing to the doors, and one of the teachers, a young lady, jumped from a window.—Among the hundreds of children with whom the building was crowded, was one girl among the best in the school, who through all the frightful scene maintained entire composure. The color indeed forsook her cheek. Her lip quivered. The tears stood in her eyes, but she moved not. After order had been restored, and her companions had been brought back to their places, the question was asked her how she came to sit so still, without apparent alarm, when everybody else was in such a fright. "My father," said she, "is a fireman, and he told me if there was an alarm of fire in the school, I must just sit still.

Description of our Saviour.

The Boston Journal says that the following epistle was taken by Napoleon from the public records of Rome, when he deprived that city of so many valuable manuscripts. It was written at the time and on the spot where Jesus Christ commenced his ministry, by Publius Centullus, Governor of Judea, to the Senate of Rome—Cæsar, Emperor. It was the custom in those days for the Governor to write any event of importance which transpired while he held office—

Conscript fathers:—There appeared in these our days a man named Jesus Christ, who is yet living among us, and of the Gentiles is accepted as a prophet of great truth; but his own disciples call him the Son of God. He hath raised the dead, cured all manner of diseases. He is a man of stature, tall and comely, with a very ruddy countenance, such as the beholder may love and fear. His hair is the color of the filbert when fully ripe, plain to his ears, whence downward it is most ornet in color, curling and waving about his shoulders; in the middle of his head is a seam or partition of long hair, after the manner of the Nazarites. His forehead is plain and delicate, his face without spot or wrinkle, beautiful, with a comely red—his nose and mouth are exactly formed—beard the color of his hair, and thick, not of any great height, but forked. In reproving, he is terrible; in admonishing, courteous; in speaking, very modest and wise; in proportion of body, well shaped. None have ever seen him laugh, but many have seen him weep. A man, for his surpassing beauty, excelling the children of men.

Gentility.

Genteel it is to have soft hands, but not genteel to work on lands.

Genteel it is to cringe and bow, but not genteel to sow and plow.

Genteel it is to play the beau, but not genteel to reap and mow.

Genteel it is to keep a gig, but not genteel to hoe and dig.

Genteel it is in trade to fail, but not genteel to swing a flail.

Genteel it is to play the fool, but not genteel to keep a school.

Genteel it is to cheat your tailor, but not genteel to be a sailor.

Genteel it is to fight a duel, but not genteel to cut your fuel.

Genteel it is to eat rich cake, but not genteel to cook and bake.

Genteel it is to have the blues, but not genteel to wear thick shoes.

Genteel it is to roll in wealth, but not genteel to have good health.

Genteel it is to cut a friend, but not genteel your clothes to mend.

Genteel it is to make a show, but not genteel poor folks to know.

Genteel it is to run away, but not genteel at home to stay.

Genteel it is to smirk and smile, but not genteel to shun all guile.

Genteel it is to be a knave, but not genteel your cash to save.

Genteel it is to make a bet, but not genteel to pay a debt.

Genteel it is to play at dice, but not genteel to take advice.

Genteel it is to curse and swear, but not genteel plain clothes to wear.

Is There no God

How can the infidel say there is no God? Who, after walking out and surveying the Heavens, can say there is no God? If any can let him gaze upward; the whole firmament will rebuke him; the stars seem to twinkle more brightly as if angry at so false a statement. Let him gaze at the Queen of Night as she rides along, majestically shedding forth her beautious light, and can he there, gazing upward, earnestly say in his heart, there is no God? Or let him walk through the grove at midday, when the king of the day has ascended his throne; the birds are pouring forth their sweetest songs, and the tall trees dressed in gaudy colors, and sweet flowers blooming on every side, send forth sweet perfume; can he then say there is no God? But will he not ask himself who formed these things? and can he answer, "T was not a God?

Who taught the bird to build its nest? Who taught the busy bee to fly? And when the earth is scorching, and all the products of the earth are withering, who is it that sends rain to moisten the ground, revive the plants, and cheer the hearts of men—who, if not a God? Then how, after all these manifold works, how can the infidel say there is no God?—Tioga Agitator.

A GOOD TEST.—The rule of a road, says an exchange, is a very good test of the difference between a gentleman and a blackguard. Whenever we meet a man, whether in a chaise or with an ox team, who turnout and gives us more than half the road, we respect him as a gentleman. But whenever we meet a young man, as we occasionally do, who drives rapidly on, without turning out a hair's breadth, we pity him with all our heart, as a poor miserable fellow—however bright his buttons, however fragrant his cigar.

Mount Vernon Ladies' Association.

Who is there among us that does not take an interest in preserving the name of Washington, and in handing it down to posterity as the "Father of his Country," the wise and just patriot, statesman and philanthropist. We feel sure no one could be found to say, he or she did not. We are led to write the above from having read the beautiful and touching appeal to the "Patriotic Ladies and Gentlemen of Blair County," by Mrs. Delia R. Banks, of Hollidaysburg, published in another column, who has kindly taken upon herself the task of acting as "Lady Manager" of the "Mount Vernon Ladies Association of the Union," for this county. Mrs. Banks has requested a number of ladies in the county to act with her as Solicitors, in the several towns and townships, and desires their gentlemen friends to lend their aid. In the language of the appeal (and we could put in no prettier language) we say "let mountain-girdled Blair—the cradle of the Juniata, not be behind her sister counties in the promptness and liberality of her response to this claim in behalf of the Home and Tomb of Washington." The Mount Vernon enterprise is in the hands of the right sex. When did a woman ever fail in what her love and will resolved on? What man can be found bold enough to intimate such a thing? No, the ladies of the United States will accomplish this great work of purchasing the dust of Washington—of making his home the homestead of American people. The sex to which we owe our mothers, will be the guardians, the preservers and protectors of the ashes of OUR FATHER, for Washington has justly been termed the "Father of his Country." Millions yet to be will thank them for it. Now, ye patriotic, chivalous and gallant men of this part of "Little Blair," show your patriotism, generosity and gallantry, by a proper answer to Mrs. Banks' appeal. Let not this new progressive portion of Blair fall behind our older brethren of the South.

SAVING FUND.—The National Safety Trust Company, of Philadelphia, occupies a conspicuous place amongst the provident institutions of our land, and multitudes can testify to the safety they have found for their treasures in its coffers. We say multitudes, for the number of its depositors swell up to the grand total of 28,839. From these have been received no less a sum than $10,213,403 09! Millions that have worked out blissful results. Up to March 1st, 1859, the sum of $186,403 48 was paid out for interest.

The above is from the last number of Tackett's Insurance Journal of Philadelphia. Our readers are also referred to the notice of this old and well established institution, which appears amongst our advertisements.

☞ The trial of Daniel E. Sickels for the murder of P. Barton Key, now in progress at Washington, drags along so sadily that all interest therein has long since been lost to the people in the country, and the fact that such a case is now on trial scarcely excites a passing remark. The verdict, whether it be of acquittal or conviction, will not effect the equilibrium of any person outside of Washington.—All the facts elicited by the trial were long since known to all newspaper readers, consequently we have nothing new to note. We may probably be able to give the verdict of the jury in our next.

PEOPLES' CONVENTION.—The Chairman of the State Central Committee of the Peoples' Party has issued a call for a State Convention to be held at Harrisburg on Wednesday the 8th day of June, 1850.

☞ We notice a few ultra Republican papers claiming all the late victories achieved over the Democracy, as Republican victories. This may suit their ideas of matters, but we think it will not meet the views of all those who have assisted in gaining these victories. If we mistake not, there is an American element, worth taking into account, in those States wherein the victories have been attained, which, while it agrees with the Republican element on the Lecompton issue, is nevertheless different therefrom in many essential particulars. To claim the victories therefore as exclusive Republican victories is manifestly incorrect, and may work to the detriment of the Peoples' Party, that being the banner under which, in reality, the victories have been secured. A generous acknowledgement of assistance rendered would be of more advantage to the ultra Republicans than loud boasting in which some of them are alone proficient. So far as our observations have been extended, we have always found men more easily lead than driven.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, April 12th, 1859.

At the time I close, but one day and a half remains of the session of 1859, and both Houses are engaged in legislating at Rail Road time; bills going through like rafts through a schute. This hasty way of doing business is sometimes productive of a considerable amount of evil, which only becomes apparent some time after the adjournment.

The great Fry divorce case has "collapsed." It fell like a lump of lead, and must have been worse than an unexpected shower-bath upon those who were so confident that they could engineer it through. On Saturday the bill came up in the House on the private calendar, when the House refused to prepare it for a second reading, by a vote of 72 to 8. This still does not kill the bill outright, but it is equivalent to a death-blow, for it is not at all likely that it will be re-considered, even if a vote be had upon it. In the early part of the session it might have passed, but the delay was fatal to the bill, for time worked a terrible revolution, and a current of public sympathy set in in behalf of Mr. Fry a week ago, which neither love nor money could stem.

The bill allowing Justices of the Peace, with a jury of five, to decide certain cases, is among the few which I have watched with a good deal of interest, but I regret to say that it has been doomed in the Senate. It was reported with a negative recommendation by the committee to whom it was referred, and at the time I write it is too late to receive further action.

The act in regard to the preservation of trout in Blair county was not reached, which is all the more to be regretted, as the House struck Blair county out of a bill presented by Mr. Turney, which would have gone a great way toward preserving them. No matter—if they are not all destroyed this season, we shall probably have another chance next fall.

The bill to regulate the Insurance Companies of the cities of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, has failed a third time, and I think the next effort will be a bill founded upon a less objectionable basis. There are no doubt many bogus insurance companies the city which should be crushed out by the heavy hand of the law, but this is not the kind of a law to do it.

The Huntingdon County Bank went down in the Senate by about the same vote that all the bank bills fell. I predicted the fall of this bill although I knew its passage was to be urged by Senator Schell. But in case it had slipped through, its fate would unquestionably have been sealed by the Executive.

At the time I write, the House has got thro' with its business, and has adjourned until 8 o'clock this evening, to take action on anything that may be required by the action of the Senate, which is still in session, and considerably behind.

To-morrow the Democratic State Convention meets, and the town is already filled with Delegates from various parts of the State. From the West Branch of the Susquehanna, a large delegation is in town, and a heavy train is expected from Old-Berks to-night. The office holders begin to squirm.

I shall have very little more legislation to note, and my next which will be mainly devoted to the Convention and outside incidents, will close my correspondence. LOGAN.

For the Altoona Tribune.

The Poor House.

To E. MCGRAW, Esq., Stewart of the Blair County Poor House.—SIR—In your reply to my communication of the 30th ult., you politely state that "by referring to our (your) report, it will be seen that we (you) supported 611 in door paupers during the year 1858, which would make an average of 51 per month, at the cost of $2585 68, being for each one per week 97½ cts."

At your request I examined your annual report and find that the admitted during the year 1858, were 72, dismissed 52, eloped 4, births 3, deaths 13, men 305, women 165, children 141—total, the amount you state, 611.

Please tell me how you support the dismissed, the eloped, and the dead, at the cost of 97½ cts. per week each?

You further state that I am in error in stating that each living pauper cost the county $4 053 per week, under your charge. No one will be more pleased than I to find you right in this assertion. Hope it may so turn out.

In making your calculation, if I mistake not, you have not only charged for keeping the dismissed, the eloped and the dead, but you have omitted entirely the profits of the ten thousand dollar farm. What became of all the grain you acknowledge it produced and that you received? What did you do with it? Please tell me. At what price did you trade off many of the articles? A crop that cost $175 to harvest, ought to be large enough to take notice of.

If 72 paupers were admitted in 1858, and 52 were discharged, 4 eloped and 13 died, how many would remain and how long would it take to gather together 611?

A TAX PAYER.

Appeal to the People of Pennsylvania, for the Purchase of Mount Vernon.

Chosen to represent, in this State, the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union, I venture to appeal to the generous and patriotic people of Pennsylvania on this day, the anniversary of the birth of Washington, for their aid in unison with the people of other States, to complete the purchase of Mount Vernon, the place of his residence and tomb; and to secure it forever as a public and enduring monument of their unabated gratitude for his life-long services, and increasing veneration for his illustrious name. Gratitude to one whose life was so generous and exalted; veneration of an example, such as his, of virtues that have so elevated the character of a public man, may well enlist the deepest sympathies of the women of America, and embolden them to claim the aid, not of their own sex alone, but of every one who justly glories in being a countryman of Washington, and whose heart is moved by actions the purest and noblest that man can render to mankind.

The object of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association is to obtain, by voluntary contributions, a sum necessary to purchase and hold forever, two hundred acres of the Mount Vernon Estate, including the mansion where Washington dwelt and died, his tomb, the garden and grounds around them, and the landing at the Potomac by which they are approached. To collect this sum, Vice-Regents have been appointed in different States, with lady-managers, associated communities of ladies, and advisatory committees of gentlemen, in the various counties, cities, and principal towns. Every person by whom one dollar, toward this fund, is paid, becomes thereby a permanent member of the Association, and is inscribed as such in a record which will be preserved at Mount Vernon. Similar arrangements will be immediately organized throughout the State of Pennsylvania, and a public announcement will be given of the persons by whom subscriptions will be received and the registry of names be made.

A large amount has been already collected from places where these arrangements have been completed. The public press, so influential in good works, has lent its powerful aid. Associations established for philanthropic purposes—the fraternity of Free Masons, to which Washington himself belonged; that of the Odd Fellows; the voluntary military companies and firemen, and numerous bodies assembling together for objects of utility and benevolence, have everywhere exhibited the deepest interest, and united in this noble effort with the most liberal spirit. Patriotic individuals have come forward, with prompt sympathy, to lead and encourage the several communities; and the cheering prospect is held out that this wide-pervading spirit, spreading through all parts of our common country, is insuring complete success.

Into this alliance of generous fellowship Pennsylvania is now to enter. Always distinguished by devotion to works of voluntary benevolence, which is an inheritance blended with her name, she has, besides, peculiar associations connected with Washington, which relate to the noblest incidents of his great career. It was in Pennsylvania that, on the day when the delegates from the colonies first met together, he appeared among them to join in the task of forming a common country. It was in Pennsylvania that, with unexampled modesty, and touching expressions of anxious but devoted patriotism, he accepted the command of a little army, scarcely formed, and resumed the responsibilities of an arduous war. It was in Pennsylvania that, amid the fiercest severities of winter, with troops almost famishing and naked, he partook their hardships, cheered their spirits, and kept them united to win the triumphs to which he afterwards led them. It was to his "fellow soldiers and faithful followers in the military line of Pennsylvania," that he expressed, when the war was closed, and with a mind deeply affected, his grateful sense of their attachment and aid. It was in Pennsylvania that he placed his all-conciliating name to the Constitution which has cemented the Union; it was here that he became its first and most illustrious President; it was here that he addressed to his country that memorable Farewell with which he closed his public and immortal career.

To ask, then, the women of Pennsylvania to unite with their sisters throughout the Union in this tribute to the memory of Washington—to appeal to all the people of Pennsylvania to give to this great object their generous encouragement and assistance—is but to solicit from them a patriotic service, to which they are called by associations connected with his memory that cannot be surpassed, nor hardly equalled, in any portion of that wide country which glories in his name.

LILY L. MACALESTER,
Vice-Regent for Penn'a. of M. V. L. A.
PHILA., Feb. 22, 1859.

To the Patriotic Ladies and Gentlemen of Blair County.

Having been solicited to act as "Lady Manager" of the "Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union," I take this method of asking your prompt and generous co-operation, in the noble undertaking to which that Association is devoted. In the above appeal of the Vice-Regent for our Commonwealth, the plans and objects of the Association are fully set forth, and I deem it unnecessary to add to the impressive plea which the accomplished Vice-Regent has made, and would only remind my patriotic sisters of Blair, and the gentlemen upon whose generosity we also rely, that with no State in the Union is the name and fame of Washington more closely or gloriously identified, than with Pennsylvania. His first three battles were upon our soil, and in the western part of our State; and so long as the names of Brandywine, and Germantown and Valley Forge are classic in our history; so long may we claim the "Father of his Country" as peculiarly our own. It was in our own Philadelphia he was appointed to that high command in which he bathed his own and his country's name with glory, and linked them with the great interest of human liberty, and it was there also that his wise and spotless civil administration laid broad, deep and stable, the foundations of our great national system. Let Pennsylvania then make a response to this appeal worthy of herself and worthy of her share in the glory of our peerless Chief; and let mountain-girdled Blair—the cradle of the Juniata, not be behind her sister counties, in the promptness and liberality of her response to this claim in behalf of the Home and the Tomb of Washington. DELIA R. BANKS.

EXECUTION OF FOUR MEN.—In Baltimore jail yard on Friday last, the four murderers, Cropps Gambrill, Corrie and Cyphus, were hung on one gallows, all exhibiting remarkable composure and nerve on the occasion. Cyphus was a negro, and the rest white men. Gambrill and Cyphus solemnly protested their innocence.—Cropps left a note, to be read after his death, confessing his guilt. He went to the gallows singing a hymn. Not less than thirty thousand persons crowded the tops of neighboring houses and hills to see the spectacle. Baltimore is well rid of all these wretches, who, notwithstanding their allegations of innocence, were clearly proven guilty. Two of them must, therefore, have died with a lie on their lips. They were riotous outlaws of the worst stamp. Henry Gambrill left a long written statement, giving his version of the murder, in which he alleges that a companion of his, named Harris, committed the bloody deed. They were all in a drunken gang together at the time, and had broken into a house and created a riot, which a policeman, named Benton, was trying to suppress, when they killed him. Rigdon, another policeman, was the chief witness against Gambrill, and he was killed by Cropps to prevent his testyfying. Gambrill kept a liquor shop, which he called a restaurant. The following paragraph of his statement is interesting:—

"I feel it my duty to give a word of advice and counsel to my former associates and companions, which is to avoid evil company, as to this, more than any other circumstance, is to be attributed my lamentable end. Avoid intemperance—follow some lawful and legitimate pursuit in life—better join the church than join the clubs—and seek for happiness where it alone can be found, in serving God. Perhaps I ought to say the great error of my life was in opening the restaurant, contrary to the wishes and entreaties of my dear father."

THE GREAT BILLIARD MATCH.—The Detroit papers announce the arrival in that city of Mr. Phelan, who is to play a game of billiards with Mr. Secreiter for $10,000; and the arrival of Mr. Cavanagh, who is matched against Michael Foley. They say the differences between Messrs. Phelan and Secreiter have been settled; that the playing will be in public; the tickets five dollars, and disposal of the proceeds to be settled by umpires after the match shall have been played. The money has been deposited for the main stake. They say that, a few days ago, Secreiter made a run at caroms of one hundred and sixty. He made a run of one hundred and twenty during his match with Barney Chrystal, which was considered the best on record.

The billiard match between Dudley Kavanagh and Michael Foley, of one thousand points, for $250 a side, has just been decided in favor of Kavanagh, who won by eleven points. The greatest run was made by Kavanagh, of one hundred and seventy-seven points.

TOUCHING SCENE.—After his usual Wednesday evening lecture, last night, the Rev. Mr. Beecher presented to his congregation the case of a slave mother in Virginia who had been freed with her five children by the will of her deceased mistress, but whom the heirs, availing themselves of legal technicalties, had again reduced them to slavery. A humane slave dealer had bought them all for $1,000, and had offered the mother their freedom for the same amount, at the same time allowing her to come North, with one of her children, to raise the money—taking her word of honor that she would return. She had collected $500 in Philadelphia, and now solicited $500 more. Mr. B. called on her to stand up. She rose, as white, as free apparently from all taint of negro blood in hue, or in her speech or manners as any member in the congregation! And her little brown haired boy was as sweet a child as any mother fondles in New York. Over $300 was collected on the spot, the remaining $200, we cannot doubt, was sent to Mr. B. the next morning. It is in all its aspects one of the most meritorious appeals ever made to a rich and benevolent community.

A JEW MUST OBSERVE THE SABBATH TO ENJOY ITS IMMUNITIES.—A singular case came up before the Marine Court, at New York, on Saturday last. A Summons had been served upon the defendant, Henry Haym, a Jew, on Saturday, March 5th. 1859. This he moved to set aside on the ground that it was made contrary to law. It appeared in evidence that the defendant, at the time the service was made, had taken passage on a steamboat, and was just purchasing a newspaper, and was also in the habit of keeping his store open on Satuday.—Judge Thompson thereupon decided that as the defendant did not keep the seventh day of the week holy, he could not avail himself of the Statute designed to protect those who faithfully observed it.

☞ The Memphis Avalanche says:—"Mike Walsh had three brothers and a sister, of whom Mike was the youngest. They had been scattered in all directions upon the death of their father. Mike alone remained with his mother. A most singular fatality befel them all. One of the brothers was shot in a duel, across the table in a southern city, another fell by the side of the brave Crockett, at the massacre of the Alamo, the third brother was burned in the Ben Sherred, and the sister perished in the ill fated Lexington. The mother soon followed her children, leaving poor Mike to meet a death, under the circumstances, more terrible than any of the rest.

DESERTED ON HIS DEATHBED.—An individual in Sandusky, Ohio, who has been pining away with consumption for the past year, was deserted by his unfaithful wife on Tuesday of last week, who stripped the house of every thing, except a cooking-stove and the couch upon which the dying man reclined, and left the city with a neighbor, who in turn left a wife and of children. The shock proved too much for the enfeebled husband, and he died the next night. No friend remained to minister to him in his dying moments except a younger brother, a mere lad, and strangers performed the last sad rites at his grave.

☞ Mr Horton, the representative of Dexter, in the Maine Legislature, is said to be the "smartest" man in it. He went, last week, sixty miles to attend a Republican Convention, went afterward to the town meeting of his own town, walked into the ranks of the enemy, by marrying, in the meantime, the daughter of a leading Democrat of Dexter, re-appeared with his wife at the capitol, and resumed his duties as a legislator, having been absent only two sessions. If there is a vacancy on the Presidential ticket, we think he is entitled to it.

A NEEDLE EXTRACTED FROM A GIRL'S HEART.—Margaret Honver, a little girl, (residing in Philadelphia,) six years of age, whilst looking at her father planting roses, lost her footing, and fell against a fence with such violence, that a needle she had in her frock was driven between the ribs, and embedded itself in the heart. After a half hour's careful dissection, it was removed by a physician.

☞ During a thunder storm on Friday last, while the family of Mr. Jacob Shoff, near Columbia, Ohio, were eating dinner, the lightning struck a valuable cow in his barn, killing her instantly; and the same flash broke into pieces every plate on the table, where the family was eating, and actually melted some of the softer metal upon the table, without in the least injuring any person present.

DOWN BELOW.—New Orleans is built upon a forest of cypress trees. For 600 feet down, at least, that is the foundation. Rows upon rows of the stumps of the cypress have been found growing over each other exactly super-imposed, each of which layers it must have taken a thousand years to form.

JOINED AT LAST.—Married, in Iredell county, North Carolina, by Jacob Fraley, Esq., on the 20th of January last, after a close courtship of twenty three years, Mr. Reuben Barbour, and Miss Sarah Thompson, both aged about 60 years.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.
A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Private and Chronic diseases.
The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Debility, and other diseases practised upon the unfortunate victims of Quacks and Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Physician as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Reading Room, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who stood in necessary for the treatment of this class of diseases. Thousands, in all cases by letter, with a description of their condition (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.
The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the efforts of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.
The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the poor, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.
An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or self-abuse, and other abuses of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.
Address, for Report or Treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 24 Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

A WORKING MEMBER.—During our association with the members of the House of Representatives we frequently had our attention called to the industry, tact and energy of JACOB BURLEY, Esq., of Blair county. This is Mr. B.'s first winter, and being unacquainted with Legislative rules, he has worked with extraordinary industry to acquaint himself with the same, and within a short space of time he has become one of the most useful members of that body, always in his seat, watching not only the interests of his constituents, but of the whole Commonwealth. Never failing to discover the tricks and devices of those who are opposed to him in politics, he has always resisted their attempts. When the bill for the reduction of the State taxes was before the House, Mr. B. was one of its earnest advocates, and exercised considerable influence in forthering its passage. Many other prominent bills also received his marked attention, and whatever good has been accomplished by the present Legislature, Mr. B. has contributed his full proportion towards it. We have known the members from Blair county for many years prior to this, and are free to confess that the people of that county never had a better member than they have in the person of Mr. BURLEY; and we sincerely hope that, if he desires a re-election, his constituents will consult their own interest and send him here again next year.

CAN CONSUMPTION BE CURED?—The exact period when this terrible scourge of the human race becomes incurable has never been satisfactorily determined, whilst all agree that it is incurable in certain stages. When the lungs are once destroyed in their structure, and when deep-seated ulcers begin to corrode them, there is very little hope of a cure, although cures have taken place after such lesions were known to exist, as has been proven by post mortem examination. A wonderful remedy, and a sure cure in all incipient cases, is "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup," a medicine made by Dr. George H. Keyser, of No. 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., after a number of years of careful experience, and after having cured numbers of cases of very dangerous pulmonary disease that had been given up by physicians. Dr. Keyser has studied medicine regularly and belongs to the old school, and the medicine that he offers to the public has, besides, a high reputation among our people. We could refer to hundreds of cases of apparently incurable lung disease, in which this medicine has cured. The cost of a trial is a mere trifle as he sells it in bottles at fifty cts. and one dollar, at his drug store, N. 140 Wood street. Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona, Pa.

FIRE.—On Saturday evening last, between 5 and six o'clock, our citizens were hastily summoned from their supper tables, by the cry of "fire!" and the quick tolling of the shop bell. The locality of the fire was readily perceptible, it being in the centre of the town and a dense smoke issuing from it. On repairing to the spot, we found it to be a shed used by the Railroad company for storing waste, situate between the large round house and the foundry. A number of buckets and the hose of the company were immediately brought into use and the fire soon extinguished, without in any way damaging the buildings in close proximity. The fire, it is supposed, was occasioned by spontaneous combustion.

NEW MARBLE YARD.—In another column of to-day's paper will be found the card of Messrs. Freeman & Hoover, who have opened a new marble yard in Hollidaysburg. All work entrusted to them will, we feel sure, be executed in a skillful manner. They are clever fellows, with whom it will be a pleasure to do business, and we bespeak for them a liberal share of orders for work in their line.

SABBATH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.—The Altoona Sabbath School Association met pursuant to adjournment, on Friday evening last, March 8th. Wm. C. McCormick in the Chair. Reading of a portion of the Scriptures and singing conducted by the President. Prayer by Rev. S. Creighton. Journal of preceding meeting read and approved. The report of the Committee on nominations was called for. T. P. Sargent, Chairman of the Committee being absent, Jas. L. Gwinn presented the following:—President, Wm. C. McCormick; Vice Presidents, T. P. Sargent, George Hartzell, Jacob Good, Ed. H. Turner, M. T. Dill, A. D. Cherry, Jas. L. Gwinn; Treasurer, Geo. W. Kessler; Secretary, D. T. Caldwell.

On motion, the report was adopted.

The President having vacated his seat during the proceedings again resumed it, after which he requested Rev. S. Creighton to favor the Association with a few remarks, which was responded to by the Rev. gentlemen in a brief and pertinent address which was listened to with marked attention by the audience and doubtless had a good effect.

Judge Gwin was called upon for a few remarks and he responded in a happy manner, showing that he was enlisted heart and hand in the cause under consideration, and the zeal he evinced infused new life into those who regard Sabbath Schools as of minor importance.

On motion, the Secretary was directed to extend an invitation to the Superintendent's and teachers of the different Sunday Schools in the vicinity of Altoona, who, as yet, have not been represented, to unite with the Association.

On motion, Resolved, That a committee of twelve be appointed to visit the families in the borough of Altoona, whose children do not attend Sabbath School, for the purpose or urging them to send their children, and also giving the children encouragement to attend.

On motion, the President was authorized to appoint persons to prepare lectures to be delivered at the next meeting of the Association, whereupon he appointed Revs. Samuel Creighton and Jacob Steck.

On motion, adjourned to meet again on the first Friday evening in May, in the lecture room of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at 7½ o'clock.

Benediction by Rev. J. Steck.

FAST TIME.—A few weeks since, we made a note of a fast run between this place and Harrisburg, by the Mail Train, Col. Crane, Conductor. We have now another fast trip to note, made by the Mail Train, on Tuesday morning last, Col Weitzel, Conductor, which is a leetle ahead of that made by Col. Crane's train. The distance is 132 miles, the schedule time for running it 5 hours and 5 minutes. The train, on Tuesday morning, left this station 53 minutes behind time, leaving the Col. 4 hours and 12 minutes to make Harrisburg on time.—Twenty-five stops were made on the route, at an average loss of 3 minutes to each, which reduced the running time to 2 hours and 57 minutes. The train arrived in Harrisburg on time, having travelled at the rate of a little over 44 miles per hour. This we think is the best time yet made upon the Road for the same distance.

YOUNG MEN'S DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION.—This Association has again been revived and is announced to give two entertainments at Military Hall, on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. The young men connected with this enterprise have devoted much of their time to preparation for this occasion, and we have no doubt will perform their parts creditably. We have been informed by a gentleman who was present at a rehearsal of the Association on Tuesday evening last, that the members acquitted themselves handsomely and gave entire satisfaction. Those who take delight in the drama as enacted upon the stage will be well repaid for their attendance upon the coming entertainments.

SPLENDID DIPLOMAS.—We have just seen the three splendid Diplomas awarded to Duff's College by the late United States Fair, at Richmond, Va., to Duff's System of Book-keeping, Duncan's Gems of Engraved Penmanship, and a special diploma for Duncan's Pen and Ink Writing. These are the first diplomas from the National Fair that we have yet seen in the city, and reflect the highest credit on the institution to which they were awarded. The honor conferred upon Mr. Duncan is well deserved, and very properly bestowed, and places him at the head of his profession.—Pitts. Paper.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—On Monday last, a new schedule went into operation on the Pennsylvania Railroad, which makes considerable alteration in the running of some of the trains. The Eastward bound trains leave this station as follows:—Express train at 1.30 A. M., Mail train at 7.50 A. M., and Fast Line at 9.20 P. M. The Westward trains leave as follows:—Express train at 8.15 A. M., Mail train at 6.40 P. M., and the Fast Line at 8.25 P. M.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT.—The room two doors above the Masonic Temple has been opened as a fruit and confectionary establishment by Geo. M. Smith, of Hollidaysburg, who has on hand an excellent supply of choice confectionaries, fruits, cakes, and drinkables, which he will take pleasure in serving out to those who call upon him. We have tested the merits of a few of his cakes and find them equal to those of any establishment in town. Give him a call.

MEETING.—An adjourned meeting of the Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading Room Association, will be held in the Library Room on Friday evening, at half past 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is earnestly requested, as business of importance to all will be transacted. The resolutions relative to a reduction of the entrance fee, reported at the last monthly meeting, will be acted upon.

INVITATION EXTENDED.—We learn from the Blair County Whig, of this week, that our townsman, Col. L. W. Hall, has been invited to deliver a lecture in Hollidaysburg, in behalf of the Mount Vernon Fund. We do not know whether he has yet accepted the invitation, but should he answer in the affirmative, we know he will get up a lecture worth going to hear. He has the ability to do justice to any subject he may select.

☞ The following was handed us a few days since with the request to publish. Whether it is original or not, we can not say; but presume that makes little difference, as our readers of a certain age will relish it all the same:—

ON COURTING.—Upon hearing the following breakfast table remarks:—

"I don't see why people cannot do their courting by day-light, thereby saving an extra for lights, fuel, and forenoon naps."

Whew! preach that doctrine until your head is gray, and you are as toothless as a new-born babe, and still young folks will "sit up" till the stars grow tired of watching and the roosters begin to crow!

There is a sort of fascination in it, a positive denial to the contrary notwithstanding—an indescribable, undeniable charm, in being the sole occupant of a front parlor, with nothing to molest or make afraid; the sofa drawn up before the shining grate, and the lamp regulated to a steady blaze, that will not eclipse the brightness of eyes, or make particularly prominent, unclassical irregular features. There's something particularly pleasing in hearing the last pair of household feet take a bee-line departure for the upper chamber, and feeling that the ever-swinging parlor door will remain closed until one of the party concerned choses to open it.

Talk of courting by daylight! Think of laming one's arm by quick withdrawals from around a certain waist, at the incessant ringing of the door bell, or seeing the puff combs and curls flying in every direction by a sound of coming footsteps. Imagine proud lover at the feet of fair lady, puffing forth an eloquent, long avowal, with extraordinary expressions flitting over his face; and, at the same moment, a puzzled little countenance peering through the folding doors, wondering what makes Mr. M. pray with his eyes wide open. Or, more disagreeable still, have mamma open the door, without the prelude of a rap of course, just at the moment you have ventured to test the temperature and sweetness of her daughter's lips.

And then what time in the day could one take? Not in the forenoon certainly, when music teachers and fashionable callers are in vogue; not in the afternoon when one's senses are stupefied by the eating of a hearty dinner; not on Sunday, when every body is expected to go to church; not in church, with pantomimic gestures that set the occupants of neighboring pews a staring. No! there is but one time, and that the veritable season set in old primitive days—a time and season for courting. An hour when you can pinch Susie's fingers to make her tell who she loves best—look in Susie's hand to see if her fortune runs with yours, and see what letter of the alphabet is formed by the lines therein; kiss her when you please, hug her when you please, and all this when the old folks are sleeping, when the sound of footsteps are scattering in the streets, and there is no one on earth so near Susie as yourself! That's um!

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young man named Carns, as we understand, residing with Mr. WM. Leamer on his farm in Frankstown township, on Monday evening last led one of the work horses out of the stable to water, and the horse presently returning into the stable where Mr. Leamer was engaged, without Mr. Carns, Mr. L. stepped out of the door to look for him, and was shocked to see him lying an outstretched lifeless corpse in the yard—the horse having in some way kicked him so severely on the side of the head as to occasion his instant death. An inquest was held upon his remains next morning by Justice Tool, and a post mortem examination made by Dr. Smith. Verdict in accordance with the above statement.—Register.

☞ Two or three weeks ago we noticed that Mr. Harvey Stewart, of Scotch Valley, had lost five horses, by poison, as was believed. Since then he has lost two others, making seven in all, and three of them being mares with foal, his loss in money is not less than $1,000. An analization of the contents of the stomach, we understand establishes the presence of arsenic; and hogs, dogs and crows have died from eating the carrion. Mr. Saml. Smith lost a valuable hog. Quite a large number of crows have fallen victims.—Register.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR,

and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a stool plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

YOUTH AND MANHOOD.—JUST Published, the 25th Thousand, and sealed in a sealed envelope, to my address, post paid, on receipt of three stamps.

A radical essay on the physical exhaustion and decay of the frame, caused by "self-abuse," infection, and the injurious consequences of mercury. By R. J. Culverwell, M. D., Member of the royal college of surgeons, &c.

☞ Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, Loss of Energy, Depression of Spirits, Timidity, Diseases of the Sexual Organs, and Impediments to Marriage, are promptly and effectually removed by the authors' novel and most successful mode of treatment, by means of which the invalid can regain private health without having recourse to dangerous and expensive medicines.

(From the London Lancet.)

The best treatise ever written on a subject of vital importance to all, well worthy the author's exalted reputation.

Address, the Publishers J. C. KLINE & CO., 1st Avenue, Cor. 19th street: Post Box 4586, New York City.

DUVALL'S GALVANIC OIL. Prepared originally by Prof. H. DU VALL, formerly of the College of Surgeons, at Paris, is now offered to the public, ☞ for the cure of sore and painful diseases. ☜

For instance—Pain or soreness in any part of the system, Rheumatism, pain in the back, breast or side, bealed breasts, neuralgia, burns, sprains, headache, cramp in the stomach, or any other disease that is SORE and PAINFUL, and it is only over this class of diseases that we claim a perfect VICTORY. We say positively to our patrons we can relieve the sufferer 99 times out of 100. We would just say to the public, Prof. Du Vall was 25 years in bringing to this medicine superiority over all others.

STOVES! STOVES! STOVES!—The undersigned has just received from Philadelphia, North, Chase & North's celebrated Cooking Stoves for 1857.

THE ROYAL COOK

for Wood or Coal. This beautiful Cooking Stove challenges all competition for the exquisite style of ornament and perfect operation in all respects. The oven extends under the fire-box, and the flues are so arranged that the whole oven surface will bake perfectly and uniformly. The slightest examination of this Stove must satisfy every one that it will become a universal favorite.

THE SEA SHELL

for wood or coal. The fire-box is of good capacity—the ash-box is deep—the oven is capacious and is a thorough baker. This stove is one that may readily be recommended for family use, in every particular.

All kinds of heating and parlor stoves constantly on hand.

ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.—Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand:

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhœa or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by

B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and high ly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 83 East 31st street, New York City.

May 6, 1858.

BY ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—Did you hear the news from Europe? If you have not, we will tell you what it is. It is that HENRY TUCK has just returned from the Eastern cities with a large supply of consisting of all styles and qualities of Overcoats, Dress Coats, Vests, Pants, Boots and Shoes, and everything kept in an establishment of the kind, all of which he offers at unprecedentedly low prices for cash. Having purchased his stock at cash prices, he is thereby enabled to sell very low.

He invites all those in want of anything in his line to give him a call, feeling sure that he will be able to give satisfaction. HENRY TUCK.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time. J. H. HAHN,

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdues inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality. This it does by equalizing the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflammation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Pain, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs, and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT, IS DO CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the circulation by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TRIED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.—An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.

J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left. G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit. S. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR ANEURISM of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.

T. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD TESTIFY, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S Antiphlogistic salt. Price, One Dollar. Chronic Package, $2.50.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT IS FOR SALE in Altoona, by A. Roush; Geo. A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg, and by all enterprising druggists wherever the "Tribune" is read. As it is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent physician, no one should fail to try the Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions, see circular.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING

Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires

than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER, Sole Agent for Blair County.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find a remedy or arrangements to which it is counteract the many deliable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach as from rising and souring. One dose after retiring, prevents the night, loosens the bowels and makes a perfect cure. One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia. A tea-spoonful will always relieve Sick HEADACHE.

One bottle taken before eating gives relief to Chollic, while one dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well. One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞ Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine. ☜ One bottle taken for the cause of the disease, will cure dysentery. One dose immediately relieves Chollic, while one dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞ Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine. ☜ One bottle taken for a short time will cure dysentery. One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞ One bottle taken for lowness or unnatural color of the skin. ☜ One bottle taken for lowness or unnatural color of the skin, will always restore the appetite, and build it up with unusual rapidity. One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well. One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Sumach will yield almost to the first dose. One or two doses cures Jaundice almost to the first dose. One or two doses cures Dropsy in children: there is no remedy in the world, as it never fails. A few bottles cures Dropsy in children: there is no remedy in the world, as it never fails. We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Billous type, and it operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues. A few bottles cures Dropsy and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.
